

Coalition for Agriculture's Future

Organization: Membership consists of voting and non-voting members representing agriculture's future.

Mission: The Mission of this Coalition is to preserve and promote for Idaho the agricultural heritage and traditions that have forged the values and character of its people and which have crafted the foundations of responsible stewardship of its natural resources.

Objectives:

- To safeguard Idaho's agricultural heritage and traditions by forming cooperative partnership with public and private organizations.
- To educate the public about the threats to its agricultural heritage, traditions and economy posed by irresponsible urban development of historic agricultural lands.
- To work closely with elected officials to help them better identify and incorporate critical land management principles and practices essential to the preservation of Idaho's agricultural heritage and traditions and its economical contribution.
